Kealoha – Creating Your Most Important Story
This is a writing intensive workshop designed for you to explore your most important stories! Come ready to focus on a significant moment in your life and write about it through a unique method guided by Kealoha. Through this workshop, you will develop a full piece that can be shared with friends and relatives. Please bring something to write with (pen/pencil/paper/laptop/etc). No experience necessary.

Karin Amano – Storytelling with Movements, Characterizations and Facial Expressions
During this highly interactive workshop, Karin will share a variety of ways to make your storytelling more dynamic and entertaining. Topics include use and care of one's voice, characterization, basic acting techniques, theater games, story dialogue, facial expression, as well as body and eye movement.
